

Quest at Olney

Load in and technical rehearsal for Willy Conley's play The water falls. began yesterday at Olney theatre. The Mulitz-Gudelsky Theatre Lab is an ideal space for our show which opens its two-week run this Thursday. Many thanks to the production staff, cast, and crew for helping the day go so well. If you would like to order tickets, please go to our website at www.quest4arts.org

Also thanks to Liz Hill and Paul Harrelson for all of the hard work they are doing to market the show. Have you seen our The water falls. postcards? Laura Kim did a great job designing them.

If you would like to be a house manager or usher for the show, contact Liz at volunteer@quest4arts.org

Quest at McDaniel's College

Director of Quest Productions, Paul Harrelson is directing Children of a Lesser God this spring at McDaniel's College. Auditions will take place Monday and Tuesday of this week. If you are interesting in trying out, contact Paul at Productions@quest4arts.org

The Fringe

My trip to Scotland went very well. With so much happening here this week, it's hard to believe that I got back just a week ago. I want to thank George and Joan Montgomery for their gracious hospitality and belief in what Quest is attempting to do at the Edinburgh Fringe. I had an opportunity to see the new venue where we may perform. I also learned a great deal about the Fringe while attending a two-day conference. Thanks to George and Joan, I was also able to plant the seeds for the formation of a planning committee for outreach to the deaf communities in the UK. I also came back with confidence that we should be at the Fringe and that we can make an impact.

Howard County

The Wings cast showcased their school show at Howard County Maryland last week to an audience of educators, parents, and Park and Planning staff members. The show was very well received and we are hoping for additional bookings for shows in the Quest repertoire over the next year. Thanks to Tamara Jo Beatty, Renee Decker, Paul Harrelson, Ryan Hayes, Willette Thompson, and Banafsheh Wallace for all of their hard work. If you would like to book a Quest show, contact us at Productions@quest4arts.org.

Grant Proposal

Thanks to Audrey Wineglass and Kristin McCarty for their hard work over the last couple of weeks. We've cranked out several new grant proposals to support Quest activities. Several more proposals are also in the works. Cross your fingers.

Board Meeting

The Quest Board of Directors will be meeting this Saturday from 12 – 5 at Olney Theatre's Mulitz-Gudelsky Theatre Lab. The meeting is open to observers.

See you at Olney Theatre!
