

Season Greetings

During this special time of the year when family is so important, we want to extend our best wishes to every member of the Quest Family. We are deeply thankful for your continued support and belief in Quest's work. It has been particularly gratifying to receive season greetings and well wishes from Family members around the world.

We are proud of Quest's accomplishments and the impact we are having. However, what gives this work meaning and what sustains us is the bond that we all share...a passion for the arts...a desire to use the arts to welcome all people...a love for each other...and a commitment to find opportunities to work together.

Oceans and time may separate us, yet together we share the joy of this special season and we relish the road ahead. We long for the times we will be together doing what we love to do...great art...art that makes a difference.

QuestFest and Volunteers

QuestFest offers Family members an opportunity to be together. Some of you are serving on the QuestFest staff, performing, giving workshops, or conducting residencies. You can also volunteer. Here are some opportunities. We need people to:

- Work back stage.
- Usher (Must be able to use ASL)
- Staff the Quest information booth (Must be able to use ASL)
- Drive artists to their residencies
- Interpret for Talkbacks, Master Classes, Workshops, Residencies

If you would like to volunteer for QuestFest, contact Kris DaCosta at volunteer@questfest.org.

Baltimore Sun

For those of you living in the Baltimore area, J Wynne Rousuck's column in tomorrow's Sun will focus on QuestFest. We'll include a link to the column in our next Callboard.

Tickets/Registration

Don't forget to order your QuestFest tickets and to register yourself or your children for QuestFest workshops. See three shows – get one free. Take three workshops – get one free. Remember the QuestFest mantra: don't come just once, come often!

Giving

We want to thank those of you who have included Quest in your annual giving. Programs like QuestFest, Wings Company, Artist Retreat, and Teacher Symposium; and the development of new work such as Rivers and Lost & Clown'd simply are not possible without the support of caring individuals.

If you would like to include Quest in your seasonal giving, you can do so online by going to our website www.quest4arts.org or by mail to:
