Changing the arts...Changing lives...Changing the world

Quest's* Lost & Clown'd Performs at Theatre Project

Quest's highly popular production of Lost & Clown'd will perform March 20 – 24 at The Theatre Project with performances at 8:00 each evening and 2:00 on Saturday, March 24. The run will include a 10:00 AM matinee performance on Thursday, March 22. Students and teachers will have an opportunity to talk to and meet the actors after the show.

About Lost & Clown'd: The show is over. Or is it? Three members of a circus find themselves in strange surroundings and with yet another audience. What is one to do? Perform, of course! After all, there is an audience. Developed and performed by three accomplished physical performers, Eric Beatty, Willy Conley, and Mark Jaster, each of whom comes to Lost & Clown'd from a variety of stylistic bases, Lost & Clown'd audiences will never look at the "every day" the same way again. Lost & Clown'd is accessible to deaf and hearing audiences.

Tickets are $16 for adults and $11 for students and senior citizens. Tickets are $10 for the Thursday matinee performance. The theatre project only has 150 seats and 50 seats have already been sold for the matinee. So order your tickets now! For more information about the show and to reserve your tickets, contact the Theatre Project at <http://www.theatreproject.org/gettickets.html> or (410) 752-8558. The Theatre Project is located at 45 West Preston Street, Baltimore MD 21201.

About Quest: I was moved by movement! Motion produced emotion! Quest is internationally recognized for its innovative work in visual theatre and its leadership in welcoming people from diverse backgrounds. Performances have been called amazing, maddening, thought-provoking, and visually-rich. Creating and producing new works for the stage that represent a strong visual and cultural base, Quest touring companies and Affiliate Artists maintain an active performance and training calendar both in the United States and world-wide. Following its run at the Theatre Project, Lost & Clown'd will have its European premiere in Vienna, Austria.
